MORN. In Imitation of "Wight," by Montgomery.

WRITTEN BY MRS. GRAY. Morn is the time to wake. The even is to unclose; Spring from the arms of sleep, and break The fetters of repose. Walk at the d-wy drawn abroad, And holds sweet fellowship with God.

Morn is the time to pray, How lovely and how meet, To send our earliest thoughts away Up to the mercy-seat! Amhassa for us, to claim A blessing in our Master's name.

Morn is the time to sing; How charming 'tis to hear The mingling voices of nature ring In h delighted ear! And with that swelling anthem raise

The soul's fre-h matin-song of praise! Morn is the time to sow The seeds of heavenly truth; While balmy breezes softly blow Upon the soil of youth; And look to thee, nor look is vain,

Our God, for sunshme and for rain. Mora is the time to love; As tendrills in the vine. The roung affections fendly rove And sek them to twin ; Around thyself, in thin embrace. Lord, let them find their resting place!

Morn is the time to s ine; Who the skies are c'ear and blue, Reflect the rays of light divine, As morning dew drops do: Like early stars, be early bright, And melt away like them, in light!

O'er morning hours mispent; Alas! how oft from peaceful sleep On folly madly bent. We've lift the stract and narrow road. And wan er'd from our guardian God. Morn is the time to think, -

Morn is the time to weep

While thoughts are fresh and free. Of life just balanced on the brink Of vast eternity! To as our souls if they are meet To stand belo e the judgment-seat.

Morn is time to die; Just at the caun of day, When stars are fading in the sky, To fa e like them away; But lost in light more brilliant far That ever merged the morning star,

Morn is the time to rise-The resurrection morn! Up pringing from the glorious skies On new found pinions borne, To meet my Save at 's smile divine : Be such cest the rising mine!

The ELIXIR remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the wonde dal machine called It restores to full v gor every delicate fund tion connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the repreduction of human life. To persons of feeble muscular trame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, ernevated youth, the overword man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renevator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not ! only remove the disorder itself, but CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI, July 13th, 1854. Dear Sir-With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency. For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Scrofula of a Cameerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Feculty in this and the adjoining counties-in fact I had obtained the test medical aid in our State, without any abate ment of the disease. Through a filend I procured a half dozen bortles of your Beech Drop, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form to use it.

Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly, JNO. C. FLINT.

TYLER'S COMPOUND GUM ARABIC SYRUP. THE increasing demand for this most pleasant, safe, and effications remedy for all pulmonary discases, has enabled the proprietor to reduce the price so as to place it within the reach of all classes. Its superiority over most similar preparations is attested by many eminent physicians who have teen eye witnesses of its efficacy when the usual remedies have failed; also by thou-and of our most tespeciable citizens who have used it in their tamilies both as preventive and cure with never failing success for the last twenty years, during which period with very little aid from advertising, &c., it has gradually spread reputation over the whole Union. In cases of recent Colds Coughs, Boarseness, &c., it gives immediate relief, and generally cures in a day or two, without interfering with diet or business, or rendering the system more susceptible of Colds, in chronic cases, Asthma, Whoop ng Cough. Croup, Bronchitis, Affections of the Lungs, and Consumption, it is always very b neficial and seldom falls, when commenced in time to perfect a cure.
